Posses Closing Around Feeing Band of Felons

SEVEN HELD AS $30,000 KIDNAP EXTORTIONERS

Three Men, Two Women Taken in Texas—Some Money Recovered

KANSAS CITY, June 2.—Police announced late today that seven persons whom they asserted were involved in the kidnapping last Saturday of Miss Mary McElroy, 25, daughter of city manager H. F. McElroy, have been arrested.

Police said three men and two women were arrested in Amarillo, Tex., and the other two were taken into custody here.

Police named Walter McGee, held in Amarillo, as being the reputed leader of the extortion gang.

Officers said part of the $30,000 paid by city manager McElroy for his daughter's release last Sunday had been recovered.

BIDS MADE FOR McLARNIN TITLE

NEW YORK, June 2.—Jack Dempsey reported last night as "trying to close a match" between the new welterweight champion, Jimmy McLarnin of Vancouver, and the present lightweight titleholder, Tony Canzoneri, said that he was not interested in any other propositions until he gets the Barr-Schelling bout off his hands.

Sammy Goldman, manager of Canzoneri, would not mind matching his man at 125 against McLarnin, no matter what the tough looking Canadian weighs.

But, says Goldman, if the match should take place, New York McLarnin would have to come down to 145 since there is a 12-pound disparity regulation in the state.

Incidentally, Canzoneri is going to Chicago to meet Barney Ross, and Goldman says if his boy beats Ross a match with McLarnin could earn $100,000.

Indian Prince Weds Chicago Divorce

CHICAGO, June 2.—The socially prominent Mrs. Katherine Winterbotham of Chicago, today admitted she and Kumar Jehan Sessodia-Warlicker, a prince of India, had been secretly married. She refused to reveal details.

She divorced her first husband, Thompson Buchanan, in 1921, and was married in California seven years ago. The bridegroom was educated in England.

"Breathing a faith that never once grew cold. A courage still unquenched."

Inventor of 4th Battalion (Edmonton Regiment) Association.

Five Counties Asked for Aid When Pistol Fight Appears Imminent—One Recaptured.

SILLOAM SPRINGS, Ark., June 2.—Lewis Bechtel, one of the 11 convicts who escaped from the Kansas penitentiary, Tuesday, was captured at noon today at a farm house one and one-half miles from Dripping Springs, Okla. He admitted his identity.

Posses were close behind two of his companions. Silloam Springs officers today requested the aid of sheriffs of five northeastern Oklahoma counties in the search for three of the escaped Kansas convicts. Believed to be in the wooded section three miles west of here in Oklahoma territory.

Fugitives Make For Mountain Area

CHELSEA, Okla., June 2.—The trails of 11 Kansas prison fugitives twisted anew today through the hills of the mountain country, but two escaped Oklahoma convicts were back again behind bars.

Reckless killers and robbers who broke from the Kansas state penitentiary at Lansing during a basketball game Tuesday, were held for killing a Chopka, Kas. officer. Have stolen and commandeered numerous motor cars, held a half dozen men and women as temporary hostages, engaged in running gunfights with manhunters and climaxed their conquest for the law late yesterday with the $2,000 robbery of a Chelsea bank.

KILLERS TAKEN

Not so elusive were two convicted killers, Jim Stribling and H. D. Bradbury, who fled from the Oklahoma prison at McAlester late Wednesday with the arms and ammunition of a guard.

They were caught last night at Stuart, 20 miles west of the penitentiary, by two marshals who surprised them trying to board a train.

FINN HOT TRAIL

The trail of one group of the Kansas escapees led several miles northwest to Silloam Springs, Ark., where three auto thieves shot it out with the police chief, Bob LaFollette.

A posse started a new search over the steep foot trails in that section after three fishermen late last night had reported several times that they were making their way along Finn's trail in the immediate vicinity.

Falls To Death

NELSON, B.C., June 2.—When he slipped and fell backwards into the water, Neil Grant, 21, of Weymouth, was drowned today. The body has not been recovered.

MISS ELISE STORROW, daring Canadian parachute jumper, met a sudden and tragic death at Welland, Ont., when, after leaping from an airplane, she attempted to fall 1,000 feet before opening her parachute. The parachute, however, did not open until the girl was only 50 feet from the ground. Her body was imbedded in her waist in the soft earth. She died almost instantly. Miss Storrow was well known throughout Canada for her many daring jumps.

LAST-MINUTE GERMAN SNAG IN PEACE PACT

Berlin Won't Sign Until She Wins Point on French War Stores

GENEVA, June 2.—Last minute difficulties have developed in connection with Premier Mussolini's four-power peace pact. It was reported here today that Germany will not sign the pact, it was understood, until she knows whether France will reduce her war material.

The Mussolini plan, first announced last March, has been held up while negotiations were forward to meet objections made by various nations to the pact.

Erin To Attack Imperial Links

BREITLIN, June 2.—Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, president of the German Reichsbank, today announced that Germany will declare a moratorium on its foreign debts.

BOAT PUBLISHED BY SOVIET CRITICIZES ADMINISTRATION

There they burn masterpieces of literature, but Italy, Hungary, Yugoslavia, Poland, Bulgaria, Rumania, would not for a minute tolerate a book or a pamphlet that criticized the administration of the Soviet Union.

And what a host of indignation would there not go up in France, or in Britain, or in Canada, if anyone with a gift for satire even the most venomous defamations and the facility of so many of our so-called chivalrous institutions—these two young Soviet writers have done with the institutions and social and economic doctrine of the U.S.S.R.

CHEAP AT THE PRICE

Chief of police Shute owns the owners of motor cars to install the reflectors called for by recent provincial regulations. Why the price is not demanded in the case of cars used exclusively in the city, there isn't any such car in existence in point of fact. Outside of the city, the reflectors are not used.

The legal requirements aside, the reflectors provide additional protection at small cost, and perhaps argue strongly for their use. They are available at all stores. It is foolish to risk personal injury or car damage to save the cost of a piece of red glass.

TICKETS FOR ORDERS

The advisory committee recommends to the city council that relief cases receive food allowances in the amount of 25 cents more tickets, and for purchases made at any store. At present orders are issued week by week, good at the stores named in the order.

The proposed change seems reasonable. It would enable the ticketholder to take advantage of bargains that may be offered during the week at any of the stores. It is to the interest, and also to the interest of the taxpayer, that relief money be made to go as far as possible.

The changed regulation would also free the city of relief authorities of the possibility of favoring one store against others. It would be "up to the party concerned to use his tickets to the best advantage."

The fault and the loss would be his, and no blame could attach to the officials.

ASKING THE MINIMUM

The prime premiers at Ottawa said only that the Dominion continued to give the measure of assistance it has been giving toward the relief of the unemployed in these provinces.

The request was moderate at the point of being inadequate. They might well have asked for more, and will have to do that later on unless there is a remarkable change in business and employment conditions during the summer.

The municipalities cannot carry through next winter with the measure of federal help they got last year. If the bureau is approached for more, the fault and the loss would be his, and no blame could attach to the officials.

It was apparently thought best to leave the matter of next winter's relief problem until winter approaches and it is too late to do anything about it then. But it is to be hoped the premiers will make plain to the federal authorities that the "stand pat" arrangement is good only for the summer, and some different division of the cost will be necessary if conditions do not in the meantime improve very decisively.

At least the presentation of this request should disabuse the federal officials of any notion that the time has come to start "tapering off" their relief disbursements. They have been persistent enough that such was the intention at Ottawa. The provincial premiers should tell the authorities there exactly what the withdrawal of federal assistance, gradual or summary, would mean in western provinces while the situation remains as it now is.

"NORTH CHINA OFF THE MAP"

Shanghai reports a formal declaration has been signed by military representatives of Japan and China.

The substance of the arrangement is that the Japanese army on the ground and highly efficient, will of course attend to the "dislodging" these volunteer Chinese forces, and will get no help from the Chinese authorities if they continue fighting.

Side Glances—By George Clark

It is according to the grade of the student. This year they will be $4.00.

The Minister of Education makes the definite statement that the Government does not make a profit on the holding of the examinations. The fees are calculated to do no more than meet the cost of preparing and marking the papers and conducting the examinations. Most of the money goes to fees to teachers who do the marking. That, he says, will be the case this year, as in other years.

There has been a rumor that the marking would be done this year mainly by the inspectors, without extra pay. The Medicine Hat school board accordingly invited other boards to join in a request that the fee be sharply reduced. The statement of the Minister shows that the petition was based on misunderstanding, and that to make a further reduction would mean a deficit.

Even so, it would be entirely warrantable to chop another dollar off the fee. At the presently reduced rate the fee will be a far more serious matter to many students and their parents than the higher fees were in normal times. It is possible, even to the point of being probable, that a considerable number of students will not be able to write because they cannot get the money to pay the fee.

It would be a disgrace to the province of Alberta if that occurred. Better a deficit in the funds than put an impassable barrier in the way of poor boys and girls who have ambition enough to want to get an education.

The Passing Show

Music is the universal language, but the new Canadian Radio Commission does not seem to know. Judging by the programs that have been arranged of late, the Commission seems to think that music as an expressive art belongs peculiarly to the past.

Nightly the Commission's announcer informs us of the programs to come, mentions the names of musical aggregations hailing from Ottawa, Quebec, Montreal, or other eastern points. I haven't heard very much about western artists being invited. Perhaps the new radio cars are not aware that music flourishes in the west.

There is no finer ensemble in the country than the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra. It maintained a high standard of musical culture long before the Canadian Radio Commission was ever thought of. Yet music lovers have been privileged to hear this magnificent aggregation of musicians but twice since the Commission came into being. On its last presentation over the ether, the orchestra was assisted by a "vocal" of world-wide reputation, Michel Chervinsky, and that at no extra cost to the Commission.

The cost city also boasts a concert ensemble of exceptional musical ability whose members have devoted all their lives to music. Not only are most of the musicians in "Edmonton" concert band from British military organizations, but there are no less than three former British military bandmasters among its players. I haven't heard of this organization being invited, in a program, though it is musically it is much superior to some of the newly formed eastern orchestras that have favored by the Commission.

Music ought not to be sectional. The west has heard with pleasure programs supplied by eastern orchestras. Why, for that matter, should we hear something of what the west has produced in musical advancement.

It's putting on too low a basis to suggest that fees are paid from the west as well as from the east. It's more honoring to our musicians as well as more fair to the Commission to remind the latter of the high standard of musical accomplishment attained by cities like Regina and Vancouver, which have become centers of musical education, and to suggest that the Commission should employ orchestras that deserves to be heard across the breadth of Canada.

I know it's true in my own profession that if one wants to gain a place on the patronage tree, one must move eastwards. It probably is not patronage in the vulgar sense that has prompted the Commission to strengthen its ranks with eastern programs and performers. It may be ignorance of western accomplishment. It would be a great pity if the high standard of musical accomplishment attained by cities like Regina and Vancouver, which have become centers of musical education, and to suggest that the Commission should employ orchestras that deserves to be heard across the breadth of Canada.

Boxing Chief Afraid Sport Will Suffer

Picks on McLarin Manager as Object of Criticism in Interview

DETROIT, June 2.—James M. (Bingo) Brown, president of the National Boxing Association, is afraid his guarantee demands by boxers and managers may wreck the sport.

"The demands of Jimmy McLarin are almost unbelievable," Brown said Thursday. "The McLarin-Corbett fight drew 25,000 people. Corbett received a guarantee of $50,000 and McLarin 25 per cent of the gate. The promoters lost big money."

"No promoter is going to continue to lose money in the fights. The alternative is to charge exorbitant prices for the bleacher seats and take the working man's money's best customer."

Declaring the days of high-priced seats are past, Brown said: "If McLarin's manager does these things, I predict the amateurs will drive the professionals into the Atlantic Ocean, and the Pacific on the other."

He suggested a standard percentage, 10 per cent for the champion and 12 1/2 per cent for the challenger in all future championship bouts.

"I often wonder if Pop Foster McLarin's manager ever looks back to the days when he was paid but to arrange around to make money enough to enjoy such amusements as boxing matches and professional baseball."

"I think it's time to give John Public a break."

SOFTBALL

N. E. Ads took an early lead in the first game of the doubleheader at Diamond Park last night when the Senior Softball League, when they found Gold for four beautiful hits before Riddle, who was batting first, struck out. The story of the game from this point on. This win keeps the North Easterns even with the Weiders, who also won their game last night. There is a good battle coming up when the Ahs meet the Weiders next. The second game of the evening turned out to be a free hitting game for the metal workers. When they turned in a list score of 21 to 10, the North Easterns were only collecting one counter. This is the second game the North Easterns have taken a good margin and the team has the honor of being the first team to score on the Weiders during the league.
